"Graphic novels are great for kids because they get kids excited about reading, and feeling confident in their reading. Comics engage kids with strong stories, compelling art, and an understanding that today's young readers love finding stories that encourage them on many levels by asking them to create the story from image and words together."

WHY CHOOSE GRAPHIC NOVELS FOR YOUR LIBRARY?

Because kids love them! The format of a graphic novel encourages reluctant readers to pick up a book and finish it. The short text blocks paired with exciting graphics and action-packed story lines make the books less intimidating and more fun to read.

"Comic books, graphic novels or the use of combining the written language with visual symbols have been used for thousands of years to communicate ideas in a public venue. Why is this so common amongst our species? Precisely because our enhanced brain function incorporates the left (analytical) and right (creative) sides of the brain in learning and understanding the world around us. When comic books combine wonderful narratives and excellent illustrations, the audience gets the best educational experience possible."

—Brad Gebhart, Artist, Educator, and Publisher, Lancaster, PA

"Comics and graphic novels are a major part of my 8th grade program. Many deal directly with vital areas and issues such as conflict resolution and interpersonal relations, world history, and mythology..."

—Virginia Parkum, Ph.D., Harrisburg, PA

"Graphic Novels enable students to engage in the '7 habits of a proficient reader.' It puts the fun back into reading."

—Esther Keller, Librarian, Brooklyn NY

www.KidsLoveComics.com

Kids Love Comics promotes literacy (and fun!) through the magic of graphic novels and comic books. KLC is a non-profit organization made up of comic creators, publishers, fans, educators, and journalists as well as comic book medium personnel.

Justice League and all related characters, names, and images are copyrighted and trademarked to DC Comics and are used with permission.

Sets and books with a Grade Level of 9+ tend to have a more mature content throughout the book. Mature content can include violence, profanity, sexual themes, and revealing illustrations. Graphic novels for grades 7-12 may also include these elements. Please use discretion when selecting titles for your school.
